General Information:

Teens will participate in a series of safe, supervised, fun and exciting educational adventures that will enhance their appreciation of New River Gorge National River, teach a lifelong love of the outdoors, and explore career fields with the National Park Service. While these activities are geared toward beginners, participants must be able to hike over mountainous terrain, occasionally venture off of marked trails, and participate in games and physical activities.

As an incentive, teens who attend the first four Adventures will be able to sign up for a fifth adventure trip.

A free bus will pick up and drop off teens each Adventure Day at a local high school and transport them to the adventure location within New River Gorge National River.
